OF THE

HOUSE OF COMMONS:

1832—1838.

Ordered, by The House of Commons, to be Printed,

EXTRACTS from the REPORTS of the STANDING COMMITTEE of the LIBRARY of The HOUSE OF COMMONS.

"IN 1834, Your Committee recommended that Messrs. Hansards should be directed to incorporate the Sessional Indexes to Papers printed by Order of The House, annually, in order 'that at any period when the Papers have assumed such a bulk as to be difficult of reference by annual Indexes, a similar publication may be ready for printing; and thus when such convenience may be deemed expedient, the delay otherwise incident to the completion of a General Index may be found to have been avoided.' Messrs. Hansards, following the direction of Mr. Speaker, have completed the work from 1832 to 1837, and for general convenience have deposited the MS. in the Library of The House."—Report from Standing Committee on the Library of The House, 7 August 1838, (691.) p. iii.

"Following the direction of The Speaker, a General Index to the Sessional Papers printed by Order of The House, or presented by Command of the Crown, has been completed; and with a view to the general convenience of The House and of the Government Offices, Your Committee are of opinion that the same should be printed, including the Papers of the present Session of Parliament."—Report from Standing Committee on the Library of The House, 16 July 1839, (406.) p. iv.

THIS GENERAL INDEX to the Printed Papers of the House of Commons, 1832–1838, has been compiled by order of the Standing Committee of the Library of The House. It is in strict uniformity with the former Index to the Bills, Reports, Accounts, and other Papers, 1801–1832, with one important addition. Experience has shown, that although much valuable information is contained in the APPENDIXES to Reports of Select Committees, there existed no means of reference to their contents. In the present work each Appendix has been carefully examined, and by a large accession of Papers being drawn from this source, the information they contain has been rendered accessible to every inquirer, and removed the disappointment frequently felt, from want of the means of reference to the documents where the facts may be found recorded.

GENERAL INDEX

TO THE

PAPERS,

PRINTED BY ORDER OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS:

1832—1838.

Explanation of References:—The Date of the Year, with the Figure between parentheses, thus, 1831-32, (670.), denote the Session, and the Number according to the Sessional List at the bottom corner of each Paper. Where more than one Account is contained under one Sessional Number, the several Accounts will be found, thus, (in 290); and where Accounts are inserted in Appendixes to Reports, they will be found, thus, (in Appx. to 713.); and where Papers are presented to the House of Commons in a printed form, thus, [149]. The small Roman Numerals, and Figures following them, thus, xxxi. 469, point out the Volume and MS. Page of the Sessional Collection in which the Paper is contained. The larger Roman Numerals, with a Figure or Figures subjoined, denote the Section of a large Head (as Army: I, 1. 2. 3. 4. 5. II, 1. 2. III, 1. 2. 3. &c.—Bank of England, I. II. III, 1. 2. 3. &c.), thereby facilitating reference in all cases where the Head comprises many Sections.
